

To the attention of the receiver :
Dear Sir/Madam
Re: BEQUEST NOTIFICATION

On behalf of the Trustees and Executor of the estate of Late Mr. Jimi Heselden, I once again try to notify you as my earlier letter to you returned undelivered. I hereby attempt to reach you again by this same email address on the WILL.

I wish to notify you that Late Mr. Jimi Heselden made you a Beneficiary to his WILL. He left the sum of $26,000,000 (Twenty Six Million United States Dollars) to you in the codicil and last testament to his WILL. This may sound strange and unbelievable to you, but it is real and true.

I recommend you to visit the below websites: http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Jimi_Heselden
<http://www.bbc.co.uk/news/uk-england-leeds-11416654> Being a widely traveled man, he must have been in contact with you in the past or simply you were recommended to him by one of his numerous friends abroad who wished you good.

Mr. Jimi Heselden until his death was the founder of Hesco Bastion Ltd and Director of Segway Inc, England. He had a very good heart and was a philanthropist. His great philanthropy earned him numerous awards during his life time such as Officer of the Order of the British Empire (OBE).

Late Mr. Jimi Heselden died on the 26th of September 2010, at the age of 62 years, and his WILL is now ready for execution. According to him this money is to support your humanitarian activities and to help the poor and the needy in your society. Please if I reach you this time as I am hoping, endeavor to get back to me as soon as possible to enable me conclude my job.

I hope to hear from you in no distant time.

Sincerely Yours,
Nelson Umeh
