

Greetings,

Naturally, this letter will come to you as a surprise since we have not met, permit me however It is with deep sense of honour and respect that I humbly make this appeal to you with the understanding that any fact/s or opinion/s expressed in this letter are given in confidence and solely for your personal information and use.

I am afraid many things is going on now in the internet which is the only way I think that I can get this issue solved but If it does not interest you, disregard the mail but if it makes sense to you, I open my arms wide to do business with you.

I am Mr. Hendrick Botha, I am a fund manager with Absa bank of South Africa, I got your email address from the business network here in South Africa, and I was assured that you are very capable and honest to transact this business with me.

Few yrs ago, I used an unclaimed fund {$100 million USD} whose owner has died 23yrs ago and no one has come to claim the money. I secretly invest this fund with our bank in a high interest program with the Johannesburg stock exchange, it ran for 5yrs and I made a profit of $10million USD.

I have stopped the program and have returned the capital back to our bank, now it's this $10 million USD profit I made which is in an escrow account in our bank, but I will like us to pull the interest I made from the investment and transfer it out of London to your country. All I have to do is to name you as the beneficiary and have it transferred to any bank account of your choice.

I don't know who to contact, that's why I am contacting you today, I will need you to partner with me and provide me with any account of your choice where I can wire transfer this fund and as soon as you have received it in your bank account, I will book my leave to fly down there to meet you. I will give you 50% of this fund for your help and I will take 50% too. This is 100% risk free as I legitimately acquired the fund.

If you are interested to assist me in this transaction, please do not hesitate to Send me an email on: hendrickbotha11@live.co.za

As I said there are no risks involved in this transaction; I can provide you with documentation of the high interest trading for your perusal.

Thank you,

Hendrick Botha
